HI, MY NAME IS BRIE.

I am a multi-faceted creative with a focus on painting, illustration work and design. I practice art with a versatility of mediums and surfaces embracing the ever encompassing idea that emotion cannot be created, seen or felt in a single space.

I am inspired by the diverse and fast paced Chicago lifestyle. I am fueled by long runs and shitty coffee. I am set to connect and embrace others with my art.

ILLUSTRATIONS

During the Black Lives Matter Movement, I joined the hundreds of artists who painted the boarded up businesses.

LADY JUSTICE

In demand for Justice, the mural was turned into prints to raise money for the following organizations,

My Block, My Hood, My City

Assata's Daughters

& Chicago Bond Fund

It is now a Traveling Voting Booth !

My painting style reflects influence of pop-art and contemporary culture.

PAINTINGS

ICARUS

Inspired by the story Icarus, my client wanted a colorful representation of the man that fell from the sun.

Levitare

Acrylic
24"x36"
12"x12"

Playing with texture, contrast,
color and tension,
I have created a line of abstract
multi-medium pieces.
My inspiration comes from the clients themselves, energetic playlists, and environments.

Abstract Work

MIND & BODY

Inspired by the connection of mind, body & spirit.

Acrylic

Can't Touch This

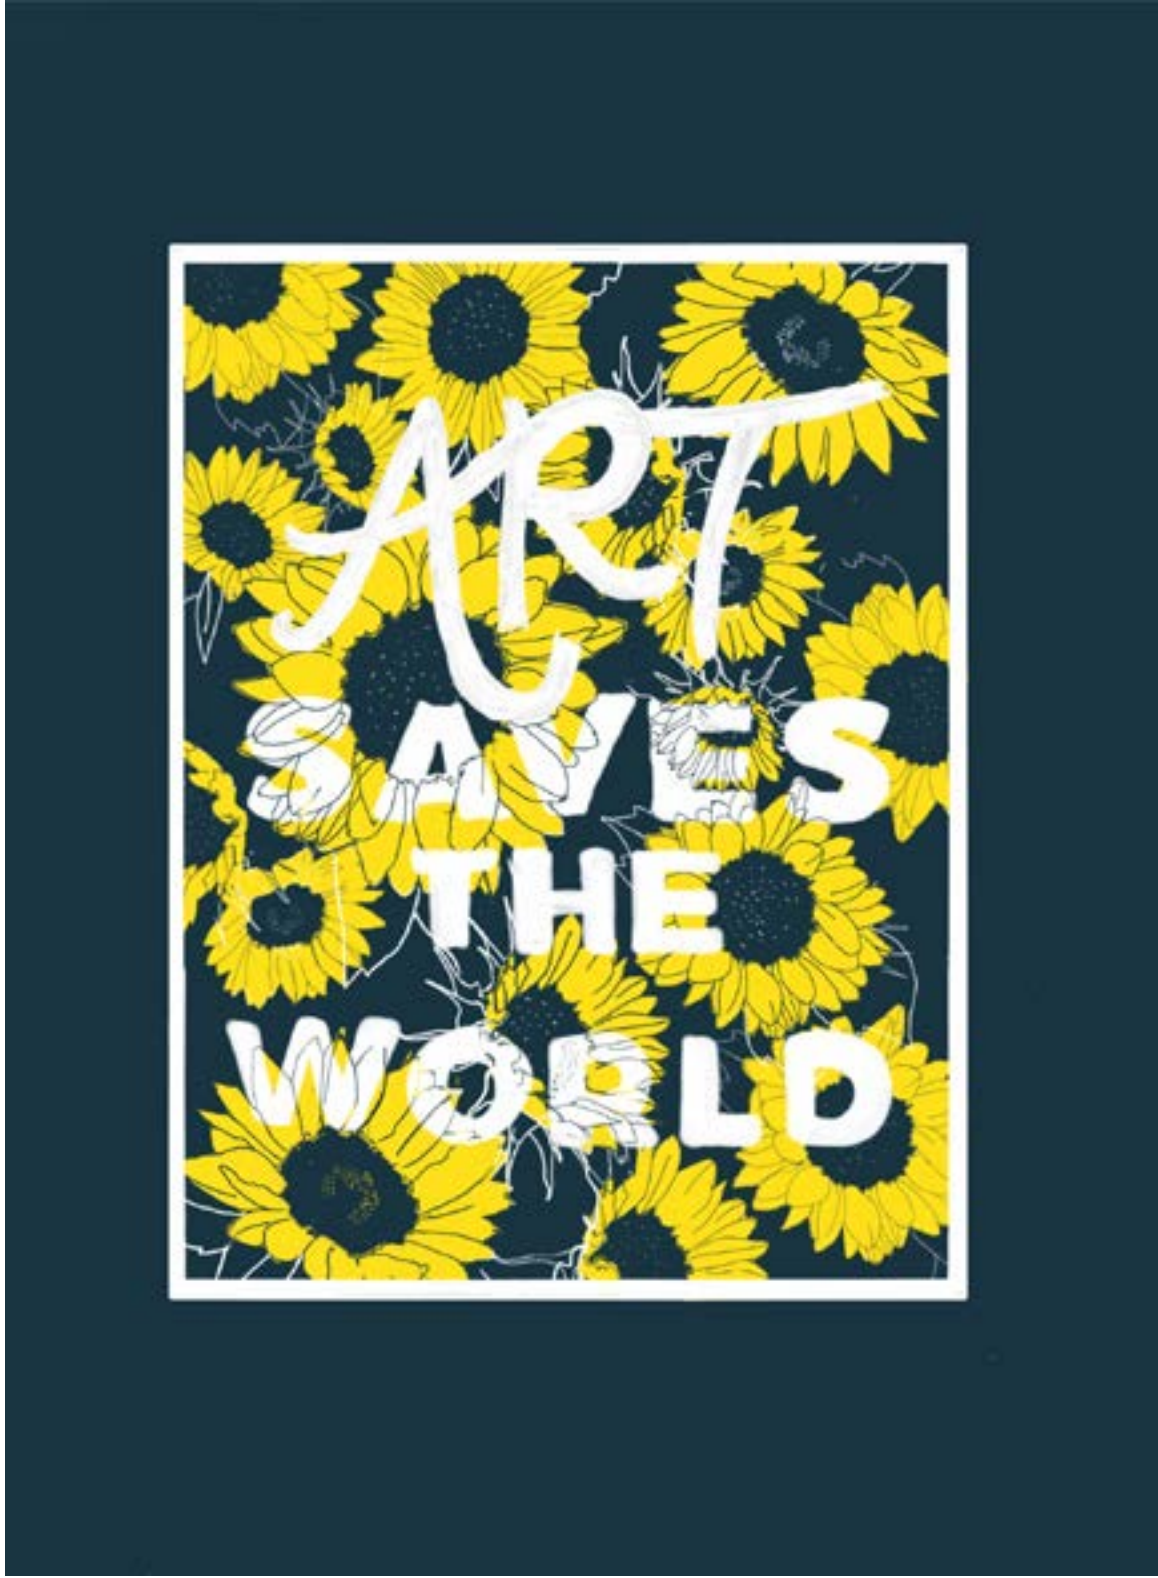

Acrylic
18"x24"

I have developed custom pieces of clothing and merchandise creating versatility and life to where art can live.

Clothing Design

Banato Collaboration

My illustration style envelops playful colors and line work to capture edgy storytelling.
